REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

To the President and Members of the White River Annual Conference:

Our working force of foreign missionaries is two hundred and ninety-two. We have ninety traveling preachers, one hundred and sixty-five local preachers, and twenty-three thousand four hundred and thirty members, an increase during the past year of two thousand four hundred and thirty.

Our women have five thousand pupils under instruction and one hundred and thirty Bible women actively engaged.

Our hospitals are thronged with patients, over seventy-five thousand having been treated during the year.

The total receipts on the foreign fields amount to $48,948. The Home Mission Department of the Board has been prosecuting work in its special field to the limit of its resources.

The aggregate receipts from all sources on March 31 were $595,956, or $52,533 more than the previous year.

These receipts include specials and bequests. When we add to this the amount received by the Women's Board, $238,940, we have a total for foreign missions amounting to $831,991, the largest yet realized in our history, and an increase over last year of $65,281.

The collections on assessments fell below those of the previous year by the sum of $8,941, from which, however, the work did not suffer materially.

Attention is called to the Layman's Campaign of the Southern cities, which began in October at Washington, and the Pastors and Presiding Elders are urged to give it every possible assistance.

The following recommendations come from the same source:

1. That we set before the church as an ultimate goal for missions an amount equal to $2.00 per member thereof.
2. That an earnest effort be made to secure a contribution for missions from every member of every church.
3. Attention is called to the fact that literature may be had by application to the Rev. Ed. F. Cook, Mission Rooms, Nashville, Tenn., or the Conference Missionary Secretary.

Turning to the work in our own Conference, we are happy to report an increase for the year in the amount collected for Domestic Missions.

While we do not for this year ask a continuance of the Conference Missionary Evangelist appointed for the first time last year, we do affirm our entire faith in the necessity and usefulness of the peculiar work which he undertook to do, and point to the work done by him during his three months' engagement as a vindication of our faith.

We commend the work of District Evangelization instituted by the Presiding Elder and Laymen of Batesville District to the notice of the other Districts of the Conference for emulation, and urgently crave the hearty co-operation of Pastors and Laymen in that work.

We further affirm our sympathy with the Laymen's Movement, and urge our Ministry to inform themselves fully as to its value and to heartily co-operate with the Laymen in their efforts at organization.

We recommend the continuance of Fred Little as Conference Missionary Secretary.

The following are the assessments for the year 1909 and 1910:

	Foreign Missions.	Domestic Missions.
Helena District	$ 1,025.00	$ 600.00
Jonesboro District	1,025.00	600.00
Searcy District	1,025.00	600.00
Paragould District	1,025.00	600.00

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the President and Members of the White River Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren: Your Conference Board of Education submits the following report:

We note with mingled feelings of pleasure and disappointment the facts set forth in the report of the Secretary of our General Board of Education. While his report shows a large gain in the value of our educational plants, that thirty-five new buildings have been erected this year at a cost of over a half million dollars, and that there has been a gain of nearly five millions in endowments, yet the number of students in the institutions of the church has fallen off by over one thousand for the year.

Whatever other explanation may be offered for this decrease in the number of students we cannot help but feel that the cause is a lack of appreciation of the value of the religious element in education. Our Methodist parents and guardians need to be awakened to the importance of patronizing our own Christian institutions. In our campaign for funds for our educational institutions we must not fail to insist on the patronage of our people as well.

Galloway College.

The report made to us by President Williams of Galloway College is that the attendance is good; that the religious life of the students is good, as usual, and that the literary work is most satisfactory. This splendid institution for the higher education of our women calls loudly for our heartiest, most loyal support. And we are glad that the day is near at hand when Galloway College shall have the opportunity of laying its claims for endowment or larger equipment before the Methodist people of the State, and we urge a hearty response to those claims whenever they are presented.

Hendrix College.

The report that comes to us from Hendrix College is very gratifying. The attendance is larger than last year. The religious life of the student body is up to its usual high level. The conduct and work of the students is very satisfactory. The Board is especially glad to note the fact that we have almost reached the goal so long sought, namely: the endowment of Hendrix College. We thank God for what has been accomplished in this direction and devoutly hope for the early accomplishment of this desired end, and, since the White River Conference has not responded as liberally as it should have done to the call of our Commissioner of Education for this endowment, we wish to urge all our preachers and laymen to do their part to help forward this great work. But a few months remain in which to raise the amount required to secure our endowment; therefore we beg all our brethren to do their utmost at once.

A report was made to us of Sloan-Hendrix Academy at Imboden, with the request that our Conference take more direct interest in the affairs of that academy; that we give the academy financial aid, name its trustees, and appoint visitors to its annual commencement exercises. The Board is sorry that matters are in such a condition at present as to make it impossible to give them any financial assistance, but we pledge ourselves to take more interest in the work of the academy in the future; therefore we recommend:

First. The appointment of W. A. Cunningham, G. W. Wells, J. A. Hill, A. G. Henderson, H. F. Sloan, M. M. Smith and J. K. Farris as Trustees of the academy, subject to the ratification of the Board of Trustees of Hendrix College.

Second. That R. C. Morehead and R. E. L. Johnson go as visitors to the next commencement exercises of the Sloan-Hendrix Academy.

Third. The appointment of Boone L. Wilford and R. P. Wilson to the Conference Board of Education, vice R. B. McSwain and W. C. Davidson, transferred.

Fourth. That R. C. Morehead, William Stuck, Fred Little and A. E. Holloway succeed themselves as members of the Board of Trustees of Hendrix College.

Fifth. That W. L. Oliver be placed on Hendrix College Board of Trustees, vice W. C. Davidson, transferred.

Sixth. The hearty endorsement of Rev. James Thomas as Commissioner of Education for Arkansas.

Seventh. We recommend that an assessment of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for Hendrix College and seven hundred and fifty-five dollars ($755.00) for the General Board be made by the Conference, to be apportioned as follows:

Helena District	$ 405.00
Jonesboro District	390.00
Paragould District	385.00
Searcy District	360.00
Batesville District	215.00

REPORT OF CHURCH EXTENSION BOARD.

To the President and Members of the White River Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren: Your Conference Board of Church Extension makes the following report: It affords us pleasure to note signs of progress in this department of our work. The increased collection, the multiplied calls for aid, the wider vision and thoughtful planning of our Parent Board, as well as an intensified earnestness that seems to be getting hold of our entire Methodism, at home and abroad, are all indices pointing to better things.

Last year our Board reported an increase over the preceding year, and again this year we report increase over last year. Amount raised this year on assessment, $2,081.97.

Amount returned to Conference Board by check of L. C. Cragg, $32.70. Brought over from last year $27.64. Total in hand for distribution this Conference, $1,101.32.

Sent Dr. McMurry, Louisville, Ky., $1,040.98.

We recommend the following distributions:

Jonesboro District—

Lake City, Craighead County.....	$ 125.00
Blythesville, Mississippi County.....	98.00
Wilson	200.00

Batesville District—

Charlotte, Sulphur Rock Ct., Independence Co.....	50.00
Pleasant Hill, Lorado Ct., Greene Co.....	100.00

Paragould District—

Hurricane Hill, Rector Ct., Greene Co.....	25.00
Scatter Creek, Gainesville Ct., Greene Co.....	25.00
Hopewell, Imboden Ct., Lawrence Co.....	50.00
Success, Reno Ct., Clay Co.....	50.00
Peach Orchard, Knobel Ct., Clay Co.....	50.00
Hoxie, Lawrence Co.....	75.00

Helena District—

Moro, Phillips Co.....	150.00
Wydenor, St. Francis Co.	75.00

The assessment for the ensuing year is $3,000, and apportioned as follows:

Helena	690.00
Jonesboro	660.00
Paragould	660.00
Batesville	330.00
Searcy	660.00

Balance on hand for incidentals $28.32.

In view of the widening needs of our church, and in accord with movements in other Conferences, and in keeping with the action of the signal call of our Parent Board, we offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, First. That we pledge our co-operation in the great undertaking of planting our church in Washington City by building a house worthy of Southern Methodism and the honor of the Great Head of the Church.

Second. That we set apart 20 per cent. of our general assessment for Church Extension, to be used as a Conference "Loan Fund," and the same to be administered through the Parent Board and used within the bounds of our Conference.

Third. That we set apart the second (2nd) Sunday in April, or as near that date as practicable, as a "Loan Fund Day," and money collected in that way to be added to the Conference "Loan Fund."

Fourth. That we memorialize the General Conference to give us a vigilant Trust Steward, whose duties shall be:

First. To keep an eye open for donations, gifts and bequests, to be used in church and parsonage repairing, insurance and extension funds, as indicated by rules of the Board, etc.

Second. To see the conditions of the parsonage on the entrance of the new preacher and on his outgoing, and charge and collect from him full value for all unnecessary damage caused by personal abuse of same or carelessness in the occupancy of parsonage property.

Respectfully submitted,

B. L. HARRIS, Chairman,

S. F. BROWN, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

To the President and Members of the White River Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren: We, your Committee on Books and Periodicals, beg leave to report:

First. We are delighted to report that the literature and books published by our general publishing house are of the highest order, and are calculated to accomplish the greatest good wherever they are read.

Second. The Christian Advocate is attaining to the highest standard of excellence as the general organ of the church, and deserves to receive the support and patronage of both our ministers and people; and the Epworth Era and Methodist Review are ably edited, and in every way cover their fields to the satisfaction of those interested.

Third. The Sunday School literature published by our publishing house has shown very great improvement within the past year, and stands second to none published in this country. We note this progress with great pleasure.

Fourth. The Western Methodist continues to grow in the esteem of the people, and is rapidly extending the sphere of its usefulness as a church paper. We hope the ministers, and people as well, will begin at once a campaign to increase the circulation of the Conference organ, and to patronize the publishers thereof, when it can be done.

Respectfully submitted,

R. E. L. JOHNSON, Chairman,

H. H. HUNT, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

To the President and Members of the White River Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren: Your Epworth League Board quotes you first a few pertinent facts from the report of the General Secretary, Dr. H. M. Dubose, concerning the Epworth League from a connectional standpoint:

"All things considered, the present year is to be accounted the most successful in the whole history of the movement. Our membership grows steadily, and is now larger than ever before. Many conversions have been reported from Chapter services—the members of the League are everywhere active in revival work. The record for the year just closed shows that new League Chapters have been organized as follows, towit: Senior Chapters, 293; Intermediate Leagues, 9; Junior Leagues, 150; Boys' Leagues, 10; total, Chapters organized, 462."

Notwithstanding this very encouraging report by the General Secretary it is with deep regret and sadness that your Conference Board must report that the White River Conference, as a whole, has had no part in this progress, for the statistics show a decrease of two Senior Leagues and 190 members; a decrease of 4 Junior Leagues and 169 members. However, one remarkable feature which we are glad to record is that there has been an increase in the amount of money raised for missions and other objects in the face of the decrease in leagues and membership, the increase being $19.68 for missions and $118.81 for other objects.

Brethren of the pastorate, we call upon you in the name of our Master to work diligently during the coming year to bring about a revival of Epworth League work throughout the Conference. Through the League spiritual sons and daughters are coming into the household of faith; missionary enthusiasm, increased collections for missions and increasing activity in Christian work among the young people are the certain results, and in greater proportion to the effort than shown in any other single department of church work.

Recently much discussion has been engaged in concerning ministerial supply, and doubtless many fervent prayers have been offered to the Lord of the Harvest to "send forth laborers into the harvest." During the past 20 years the league has given to the Methodist pulpit 700 consecrated, intelligent young men. Brethren, help the Lord to answer your prayers in this particular, and as well for the spiritual uplift of the young life of our Country, by championing the cause of the League in our Conference. Don't give up the ship. It pays to put the young men and young women, the boys and girls to work for God. Enter into this work just as you do your pulpit and pastoral work, and you'll win stars for your crown. The discipline requires it; duty demands it; God approves it, and abundantly blesses the work wherever carried forward in His name.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. POPE, Chairman.

A. C. CLOYES, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

To the President and Members of the White River Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We regret to report a lack of interest in some parts of the church in Children's Day and in organizing, as the Discipline directs, our schools into missionary societies. Very few are taking interest in the study circle or training work. Decision Day and Rally Day were observed by few schools. Seventeen charges reported collections on Children's Day. We furnished programs to many who failed to report results to us. The Statistical Secretary reports a decrease in schools, officers and scholars, but we think the fault is in reports handed in and not actual loss. Every pastor should keep informed about his school and see its needs are supplied and insist on Children's Day being observed at every appointment. We have wise leaders; let us follow them. Send to the Secretary of the Board for free programs for Children's Day.

We received from Children's Day collections in cash from

After providing for needy schools and expenses of the board we had a balance from last year of $65.84. This will be forwarded to the General Sunday School Board for the endowment of a chair of religion, pedagogy and Sunday schools.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That we accept and adopt the plan of the other two Conferences of this State whereby a State Sunday School Conference be held some time early in 1910, the work to be correlated with Conference Sunday School work of Texas and Oklahoma, using the same faculty or course of instruction.

Respectfully submitted,

W. P. TALKINGTON, Chairman.

T. B. WILLIAMSON, Secretary and Treasurer.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

We, your Committee on Sabbath Observance, submit the following:

We firmly believe that the literal obedience of the Master in the observance of the Christian Sabbath, both as individuals and a nation, will bring to us a great degree of happiness and development, both in this and the life to come.

We urge that our people refrain from all labor, amusements and pastime on the Sabbath, except such labor as is absolutely necessary.

We also recommend that the pastors of the several charges preach at least one sermon in the year to their several congregations on the subject of Sabbath Observance.

We think the preached word is the best way to correct these evils, for "The Gospel is the power of God unto Salvation; to every one that believeth."

We pray that the law-making power of our State will make it unlawful to fish, or give any kind of public exhibition for amusement in the State on Sunday.

MEMORIAL TO GENERAL CONFERENCE.

To the General Conference of the M. E. Church, South, to Assemble in Asheville, North Carolina, in May, 1910:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—

WHEREAS, The rapidly increasing foreign immigration, the marvelous growth of the cities, the upbuilding of factories, the opening of mines and the large unoccupied areas in the rural districts are intensifying the demands upon our home mission work far beyond our power to meet; and,

WHEREAS, The strengthening of our home church is essential to the solution of this perplexing problem and to the accomplishment of greater things in our foreign fields; and,

WHEREAS, Heretofore, the home mission work of our church has been largely done by the Annual Conferences, some of which have not had sufficient funds for the development of their territory and for meeting the requirements of these new and changed conditions; and,

WHEREAS, The last General Conference inaugurated a general home mission policy by creating a Home Department of the General Board of Missions; and,

WHEREAS, The work of this department during the quadrennium has demonstrated the greater needs and possibility of such work; therefore be it

Resolved, By the White River Conference, That we petition and memorialize the General Conference to establish and equip the Home Department, that the greater resources of the better developed territory may be applied to the evangelization of the weak places in our Methodism.

R. C. MOREHEAD, Chairman.

REPORT ON SPIRITUAL STATE OF CHURCH.

Dear Brethren:—We have reasons for gratification and encouragement. The revival fire has been burning, and many souls have been saved, many additions to the church. Let us thank God and take courage.

The work of the church in our Conference is marked by a steady progress. As a Christian people we will not fail to do our part to rebuke sin and hold up before our people a high standard of Christianity.

We should preach on the subjects of true loyalty to God and to our visible church, and inspire our people in the Layman's Movement, in our Woman's Societies, in our Young People's Societies to co-operate with us in a steady and rapid building of our spiritual temple.

We recommend the erection and maintenance of family altars in the homes of all our people and a prayerful reading of the Scripture in the home circle as a means of grace. Let the preachers encourage their people in this work.

W. F. WALKER, Chairman.

F. N. LOONEY, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

To the Bishop and Members of the White River Annual Conference:

Brethren:—We, your Committee on District Conference Journals, desire to make this report:

We note with pleasure the neatness and good forms in which all the journals are kept.

With the exception of a few statements in the Helena and Jonesboro journals, which seem to be too brief, we have no criticism to make.

BIBLE SOCIETY.

To the Bishop and Members of the White River Annual Conference:

We, your Committee on Bible Cause, desire to report:

We rejoice at the increasing demand for the Bible.

We commend the work of the American Bible Society, and urge our pastors to assist in supplying the people with Bibles and Testaments. We recommend the appointment of G. S. Morehead as Conference Colporteur for the ensuing year. We recommend that as Mrs. Russell Sage has given the American Bible Society $500,000 as permanent endowment, conditioned on its friends raising a like amount, and as $200,000 is yet unprovided for, and as the society is our ally in taking the world for Christ, we recommend that the amount collected this year and not already forwarded be placed in the endowment fund, and that this Conference pledge $500 for next year, this pledge to take the place of the usual offering and be distributed to the various charges on the same basis as the regular Conference claims, and suggest that our pastors take this collection early.

The amount collected this year, $144.21.

H. E. MAY,
J. D. RUTLEDGE,
J. A. ROBERTS.

ORPHANAGE.

To the President and Members of the White River Conference:

Dear Brethren:—Your Committee on the Methodist Orphanage respectfully report that we received a report from the Board of Trustees of the Orphanage, which was read in your hearing, showing last year its most successful one and the new building progressing nicely. The Ladies' Advisory Board has asked to be allowed to furnish it when completed. Many little ones have been saved and put in good homes.

We most heartily commend the great work done by Col. George Thornburgh and promise to still give our moral and financial support to the Orphanage, and as pastors and laymen we will endeavor to enlist our Sunday schools in this commendable work.

Respectfully submitted,

F. A. JEFFETT, Chairman.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

To the President and Members of the White River Conference:

Dear Brethren:—Your Committee on Temperance wish to report that the outlook for the complete suppression of the liquor traffic in our State is better than ever before. The religious, the moral and the temperance forces of the State are coming together with an intensified enthusiasm that bespeaks the speedy deliverance of our State from this great evil. The great masses of our people are coming more and more to know that this is God's cause.

Our people, also, are becoming more clearly to understand that the liquor traffic is the relentless foe of our civil institutions, and whatever else may be said of the average American, he is patriotic; he loves his country, and he will die for it. This question will appeal to his patriotic instincts, and he will arise in his might and do away with the licensed saloon.

The blood of our beloved Carmack arises from every part of our Republic, and cries, "Away with the licensed saloon."

We deplore the failure of our last Legislature to give us relief from the liquor traffic. God's people everywhere are massing against the liquor evil, and it is surely going from the borders of our fair land.

The Anti-Saloon League of Arkansas has adopted a revised constitution, which meets practically all the demands of all the factions of the temperance forces of the State, and upon this revised constitution we are reorganizing ourselves for the coming campaign. In this reorganization we are bringing together all the forces of every county and every township in the State for widespread information and unified action of the people for the greatest victory ever recorded in the history of the State.

We recommend, first, as large attendance as possible upon the County Temperance Conventions, to be held on the 11th of this month in all the counties of the State.

We recommend, second, that a great temperance mass-meeting be held in this church this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

We recommend, third, that B. L. Wilford, Fred Little, W. F. Walker, F. W. Pearson, Richard Jackson and L. B. Jones be appointed as trustees to represent the White River Conference on the Anti-Saloon League Board, and at the State Convention to be held the last Tuesday in January, 1910, and at any other time and place that this Conference may need to be represented.

B. L. WILFORD, Chairman.

W. F. BLEVENS, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT.

To the President and Members of the White River Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—Your Committee on the Laymen's Movement beg leave to submit the following report:

We rejoice in the renewed interest, zeal and activity on the part of the laymen of the church. We recognize in it the providence of the Almighty God, and prays that His spirit may lead.

The movement is inter-denominational and denominational, a united and co-operative effort on the part of the laymen of all the churches to give the Gospel of Christ to the millions of earth. It seeks to awaken a universal interest, to deepen the consecration of the men of the church to make practical plans and to supply sufficient means to the end that His kingdom may speedily come and that His will may be done on earth as it is in heaven.

The Laymen's Missionary Movement is not an independent organization, but a movement that is to work through the duly constituted channels of the church. The Methodist Church is so constituted that the preacher is the unit of administration, his leadership is indispensable—no less in this than any other co-operative effort on the part of its membership—and likewise the measure of its usefulness is largely in his keeping. We trust that our preachers will be able to discover, develop and direct its potentiality for the upbuilding of the church.

The scope and purpose of the movement finds expression in an effort to evangelize the world in this generation. An essential part of the worldwide missions is the evangelization of the homeland, and those who have had a vision of this great work are no less interested in home missions than foreign. The earth is the Lord's.

We rejoice that a successful beginning has been made in our Conference. We believe that every Methodist itinerant is and should be a missionary, ever seeking to expand the kingdom, but we believe their labors should be supplemented not only by the personal effort of the laymen themselves, but by one or more ministerial evangelists in each presiding elder's district to be supported by the laymen of the district and sent under the appointment and direction of the presiding elder into the unoccupied territory of the district.

We recommend that a campaign of education on the question of missions be carried on by the circulation of missionary literature furnished by the office of the General Board of Missions, by the circulation of "Go Forward" by an earnest consideration of the subject at our District Conferences and elsewhere, in which our laymen be invited to participate.

We urge especially that the movement be made the subject of earnest, persistent prayer; that the Holy Spirit, the source of all power, may guide and inspire in this great body of our laymen a deeper piety, a larger liberality, a more zealous, active consecration in the work of extending the Kingdom. Respectfully submitted, R. A. DOWDY, Chairman.

ORDINATION.

I hereby certify that on December 5, 1909, in the M. E. Church, South, Searcy, Arkansas, I ordained William Jasper LeRoy and Ira Hard Russell to the order of deacons as travelling preachers.

Also at the same time and place I ordained Emmett King Sewell, a traveling preacher, to the order of elder.

EUGENE R. HENDRIX.

Searcy, Arkansas, December 5, 1909.

MEMOIR.

Rev. Prentiss Barr Wallis.—Bro. Wallis was a good man, a faithful and scriptural preacher, diligent Bible student, loyal churchman and sympathetic pastor. His love was without dissimulation. He was as near guileless as any man I ever knew, as meek as a lamb, and as true as steel to his convictions. He was courageous, but his courage was seasoned with grace and not enmity. To know him was to love him. He succeeded in the ministry over great odds and difficulties that other men would not have met and overcome: having a large family and receiving a small salary made his pathway rather hard, but urged on by a consuming desire to do good and feeling that woe is me if I preach not the Gospel he pushed forward, forgetting the things past and kept a steady eye on the Author and Finisher of our Faith with a desire to finish his work and receive a crown. This he was permitted to do.

After five days of painful illness with rheumatic fever he passed from Heber, Arkansas, and his family to his home in heaven. He knew the end was near and gave directions as to his burial, who should preach his funeral and write his obituary. He was buried near Searcy by the grave of his oldest son. Dr. J. H. Dye and Rev. A. T. Galloway held the funeral services.

Bro. Wallis was conscious to the last; said all was well; told his family to meet him in heaven; occasionally would say, "Amen." Just before crossing the last river he said he saw his mother and Ran. This was the son by whom he was buried. Who knows but he did? There is no telling here what may be the revelations in the "twilight of two worlds." Bro. Wallis was born at Batesville, Arkansas, March 15, 1850; professed saving faith in Christ under the ministry of Rev. Thomas Vincent in Independence County, Arkansas, in September, 1875; licensed to preach September 29, 1883, and admitted on trial in the traveling connection at Jonesboro in December, 1886; ordained deacon December 9, 1888; ordained elder December 20, 1891. Bro. Wallis served the following charges: St. Francis Circuit, 1887-89; Boydsville Circuit, 1890-92; Gainesville Circuit, 1893-96; Rector Circuit, 1897-98; Tuckerman Circuit, 1899; Salem Circuit, 1900; Melbourne Circuit, 1901; West Searcy, 1902-03; Cabot Circuit, 1904; Gainesville Circuit, 1905-06; Rector Circuit, 1907-08; Heber Station, 1909, but only served part of this year and fell at his post.

Bro. Wallas was happily married to Miss May Bell Starks, December 28, 1876. She and several children remain to mourn their loss. May the God of all grace comfort them.

M. M. SMITH.

MEMOIR.

Rev. Samuel L. Cochran was born in Lincoln County, Tennessee, on July 3, 1847. He came to Arkansas when a child and was converted at 18, when he at once became an exhorter, and in 1873 a local preacher, and as such was used as a supply in 1874-5. In 1876 he was admitted to the White River Conference and at all times was a zealous Methodist. He was a strong man, one of our best preachers and both knew and loved the doctrines of our church. Having the courage of his convictions he antagonized some people, but all men who amount to anything do that. I loved him as a pastor, presiding elder and friend, and as a man I admired his manly courage. He died in harness and with regret only that he was leaving a helpless child. He is at home forevermore.

MEMOIR.

Sister R. G. Britton moved from earth to heaven during the year, and loving tribute was paid her at memorial session, but no memorial was handed in. "Forever with the Lord." Amen. So let it be.

MEMOIR.

Here and there in life we meet men and women whose lives are a doxology and whose influence is a benediction. This tribute may well be given to Mrs. S. H. Babcock.

Mrs. Babcock was born on August 4, 1848, in North Georgia. She was the eldest child of Rev. W. G. and Georgia Ann Allen. She spent her young ladyhood in her native State, and at the age of seventeen was graduated with highest distinction at Wesleyan College, in Macon, Ga. She was converted and joined the Methodist Church in early childhood. On November 1, 1874, she was married to Rev. Sidney H. Babcock, who preceded her to the heavenly home five years ago.

Having been a teacher most of her life, no woman in the State was more widely known nor more beloved than she.

Possessed of a strong personality she was calm and serene in mind, sublime in faith, abounding in hope and blessed with a wealth of love. In all matters she showed herself great—so great that littleness and meanness shrank from her and companionship with her was ennobling.

She was active in the woman's missionary work of White River Conference, having held Conference offices in both foreign and home societies.

How beautiful is the home-going of such a one, and may the place made vacant on earth by her home-going be ably filled by those who bear her name and character.

MRS. A. L. MALONE.

MEMOIR.

Sarah J. Crawley was born in Cumberland County, Kentucky, May 5, 1848; professed faith in Christ in her fourteenth year, and joined the M. E. Church, South; was married to Rev. J. M. Thrasher on January 23, 1873; became the mother of five children, four of them preceding her to the heavenly home, for which she departed February 13, 1909.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

Resolved, That this Conference desires to express its sense of gratitude to the good people of Searcy for the hearty welcome they have accorded us and the generous, hospitable entertainment provided for us during our stay with them; and that we also wish to include in this expression of thanks our amiable host, Dr. R. P. Wilson, and his co-workers, whose thoughtfulness anticipated and provided for every need.

We also thank our president, Bishop E. R. Hendrix, for his inspiring devotional services and affable and brotherly spirit displayed toward us at all times.

We wish also to include our efficient and faithful Auditors, Secretaries and Statistical Secretary for their painstaking labors in reporting the proceedings and work of the Conference.
